

K-LOVE is an inspirational radio station that calms me and keeps my perspective of what is important in life. The community benefits immensely as it unites us by providing important information concerning events in our community and nationwide and how God is at work in people. I believe our entire community benefits as we have a radio station that praises God and is the reason we are here.